We have been observing the groups in their drama workshop groups. They have been learning different skills in their groups that will help them in life.

We have looked at the cast group very carefully realizing they are working very hard for the performance and they look like they will perform very well on Thursday. The show will be from 9:15 to 10:00am.

Moreover we have looked at other groups like the dancing and singing group this will help them go into the performance with confidence. We think by the end of the week they will become very skillful in dancing and singing.

In fact there was a group that was creating props and backgrounds to cover the scenery on stage.

This is a very good way to learn how to create texture and effect in painting and will soon be used in a future hobby.
